We are dedicated to making the MOST delicious, practically homemade chicken soup – aka liquid gold – around. We started as Prescription Chicken™, delivering soup to hungry bellies throughout the Washington, DC area in September of 2016 and have since expanded to offer our line of premium, all-natural chicken soups under the moniker Chix Soup Co in grocery stores across the country. We are obsessed with chicken soup and it's all we make, so you better believe it's the best around.
